By Jane Katch

The University of Chicago Press. Hardback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, Far Away from the Tigers: A Year in the Classroom with Internationally Adopted Children, Jane Katch, Over the past three decades, over a quarter of a million children have become citizens of the United States through international adoption. Kindergarten teacher Jane Katch recently found herself with three such children in her class: Katya, Jasper, and Caleb. Born in Russia, Cambodia, and Romania, respectively, each child had spent early years in an orphanage, and each had unique educational and emotional needs. How Katch came to recognize and respond to those needs makes up the journey of discovery in this moving and insightful book. Interspersing vignettes from the classroom and conversations with the children's parents, "Far Away from the Tigers" first explores Katch's misunderstandings and mistakes as she struggles to help the children adjust to school. As Katch learns more about each child's pre-adoption past, she gradually realizes that they were deprived of some basic learning experiences, and she needs to find ways to fill those gaps. For instance, before Caleb can learn to read or write, he must improve his verbal skills by learning nursery rhymes, stories, and songs. Katya,...
