The claim is, that this decree has the effect to cut off, not only the demandant s interest in the premises, which is stated in the pleadings, but also her claim to dower, to which no allusion is made. This insistent does not seem to me well founded. It is clear, that it is not supported by the language of the de. cree, for the adjudication is, that the demandant shall be barred and foreclosed of all equity of redemption. Such language is apt and intelligible in its application to her as the equitable owner of the premises; but it is neither apt nor intelligible, if we attempt to give it relation to her rights as dowress. This latter interest being superior to the mortgage title, has nothing in common with a right to redeem the land from...
