We also wish to express our thanks here to Santford Martin, editor of the Winston-ftalc Journal, for his fine address of welcome and to the other citizens of that city who did everything possible to make our brief stay pleasant. The group picture on another page of a part of those present will speak for itself. Organization The association was organized by beekeepers on January 11, 1917, be cause a need was felt by them for just such an organization to promote the welfare of the beekeeping industry in North Carolina. The fact that it has held together and is still going strong and growing stronger at the end of seven and three-quarter years is testimony enough of the fact that it has filled and is still filling the need for which it was first organized. The constitution which follows at the end of...
