Of this charming species I possess but a single example, taken at San Antonio, by Mr. Boll. It belongs to Group III. Coalburgh, W. Va. Wm. H. Edwards. An International Congress of Botany and Horticulture will be held at Paris during the International Exhibition next year. The Congress will open on August 16, 1878, and will last a week. Selective Discrimination of Insects. The remarks of Sir John Lubbock in a late lecture on the relation of insects and flowers leads to the inference that in his opinion the brilliancy of colour rather than the odour is the attraction. My observations lead me to suppose that it is not the colour, but the particular odour of each variety or species of flower which induces the visit. With great interest, not unmixed with curiosity, I have observed (my attention was at first...
