Something of the character of the democracy which they taught may be learned from the following definition, taken from Kendall s Exposition: - The democracy we advocate is justice between man and man, between State and State, between nation and nation. It is morality. It is giving every man his due. It is doing unto others as we would have them do unto us. It advocates the banishment of falsehood, fraud, and violence, from the affairs of men. It is the moral code of Him who spake as never man spake. It is the perfection of reason and the law of God. And also from the following resolutions, adopted at a Democratic State Convention at Worcester, Mass., Sept.22, 1847: - Resolved, That the Democratic party and creed are the party and creed of truth and freedom, whose fundamental tenets are the inborn, Heaven-granted freedom and equality of all men (to deny which is to destroy republicanism); the limited powers of all governments, and their derivation from the people as the fountain of political authority.
