Part of this dread is due to putting off what you know you should do consistently throughout the year but you'd rather ignore it for as long as possible. The worst part is when the holiday season finally rolls around after a hectic year, and you have to spend time inside doing all those chores you put off rather than cherishing the joys of the season. Even worse are the chores that you have to do outside; it's just cruel to be outside but not enjoying the merry atmosphere. What if there was a way to make the chores more efficient so you could devote less time to household chores? What if you could make the most of this holiday season by preparing for it beforehand? How about using the right home cleaning and organizing tactics to avoid last-minute worries? In this guide, I've assembled a list of tricks that will help you get the most out of your time and, hopefully, empower you to make cleaning a consistent habit rather than a looming evil.
