HarperCollins Publishers, United Kingdom, 2002. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Film tie-in ed. 192 x 128 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. A superb novel that delicately unearths the myriad manifestations of extraordinary love between ordinary people. The Feast of Love is just that - a sumptuous work of fiction about the thing that most distracts and delights us. Shortlisted for the National Book Award. In this latter-day Midsummer Night's Dream, men and women speak of and desire their ideal mates; parents seek out their lost children; adult children try to come to terms with their own parents and, in some cases, find new ones. In vignettes both comic and sexy, the owner of a coffee shop recalls the day his first wife seemed to achieve a moment of simple perfection, while she remembers the women's softball game during which she was stricken by the beauty of the shortstop. A young couple spends hours at the coffee shop fuelling the idea of their fierce love. A professor of philosophy, stopping by for a cup of coffee, makes a valiant attempt to explain what he knows to be the inexplicable workings of the human heart. Crafted with subtlety, grace, and power, The Feast of Love is a masterful novel.
