In 2006, author Laurie Beck was diagnosed with a rare form of incurable Non-Hodgkin s lymphoma as well as leukemia. In 2009, her doctors told her that they could not find any trace of cancer in her body. For more information, go to Laurie embarked on a healing journey that incorporated the powerful combination of mind-body-spirit. Laurie confronted and dealt with the anger and sadness of her childhood and her negative feelings towards her ex-husband, grandmother, and most important her own mother. I am Living To Tell is a powerful personal story written to others with all aspects of their struggles in life. This book will inspire and encourage many individuals who are faced with an illness or life altering condition to be proactive in allowing their bodies to heal and incorporating the right healing tools that are concise with their intuitive emotions. Our bodies want to heal, and we as individuals do not need to simply accept bad news, but rather accept that all things can be made whole, and desire and will it into existence.
