Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Rutland Papers: Original Documents, Illustrative of the Courts and Times of Henry VII. And Henry VIII., Selected From the Private Archives of His Grace the Duke of Rutland, C. C. C I Am indebted to the condescension of the Duke of Rutland for the pleasure of offering these interesting historical Papers to the public, through the medium of the Camden Society. My thanks to His Grace for enabling me to do so, will be best expressed by the care and pains taken in editing them; a task, however easy it may appear, not to be properly accomplished without bestowing much attention on every doubtful word in the ancient manuscripts, and collating the whole with documents relating to the same period, both such as are already known and such as are unknown to the world of letters, - the former by publication, and the latter by conservation in private and national Repositories. The laborious nature of my pursuits, in connexion with literature, might fairly lead to the presumption that an apology was deeply demanded for the manner in which I have performed this duty; but I rejoice to say I have none to offer.
