Ah! happy child! words cannot tell How far beyond thy dream Is that blest land where thou shalt dwell In bliss untold, supreme. The angel ceased; no other word Fell on my longing ear: I breathless lay until I heard Thy footstep coming near. Oh! I have made a happy choice. Sweet mother, do not weep; Rejoice with me, rejoice, rejoice--I m weary--let--me--sleep. AM.H. JUBILEE OF EMANCIPATION.--IV. BEFORE giving our readers the history of the English Relief Act of 1778, it will be well to recall, as far as we can, . the state in which English Catholics were at that period. It must be remembered that only three-and-thirty years had then passed since the last attempt of the Stuart family to regain the throne. Many Catholic families, as well as many Protestant families of...
