Excerpt: .success in their business; and breaking down, like many of our railroads in the last few years, were purchased at much less than their cost and stocked into other companies which had been more successful. This tendency to consolidation, originating in necessity, was found desirable from motives of mutual interest, and went on until more than four-fifths of the entire Telegraph lines on the Continent are owned and operated by one Company. These lines extend from the Canadian border to the Gulf of Mexico and the Rio Grande, and from North Sidney, Nova Scotia, to the Pacific Ocean, and up the Pacific coast into the British Possessions, a span East and-West of 4,500 miles, over which it requires four hours and a quarter for the Sun to rise; and the feat has been performed of publishing in the morning papers at San Francisco the...
