The renunciation of Prince Leopold of Hohenzollern was the best solution of the conflict, of which it removed the immediate occasion; but already on the 15th of July a credit for war purposes was demanded of the French Legislature, and granted. Thus the whole state of things underwent a change. The Spanish question disappears, and the German question arises. All the Powers surrounding Bavaria are arming, as is likewise doing neutral Switzerland. On the 16th instant orders were given for the mobilization of the Bavarian army. No declaration of war has hitherto taken place, and negotiations for a mediation, hi which Bavaria has taken a part, are being carried on, but with little prospect of success. In closing his speech, Count Bray, as well as the Minister of War, denied that the following statement, which appeared in the...
