Fresh Ink Group, United States, 2012. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 230 x 150 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .While all Mississippi bakes in the scorching summer of 1925, a sudden orphanhood casts its icy shadow across Emily Ann Teegarten, a pretty young teen. Taken in by an aunt bent on ridding herself of this unexpected burden, Baby Teegarten plots her escape using the only means at her disposal: a voice that makes church ladies cry and angels take notice. I m gonna sing jazz up to New York City, she brags to anybody who ll listen. Cept that Big Apple-well, it s an awful long way from that dry patch of earth she used to call home. So when the smoky stages of New Orleans speakeasies give a whistle, offering all kinda shortcuts, Emily soon learns it s the whorehouses and drug joints promising to tickle more than just a young girl s fancy that can dim a spotlight . . . and knowing the wrong people can snuff it out. Jazz Baby just wants to sing-not fight to stay alive.
